SOULLESS [DEMO]

I'm a soulless shape, I'm an empty shell.
Looking down on myself, I was never alive.
I want the world to feel my fucking pain,
I want the world to go fucking insane.

Soulless,
I'm soulless.
Soulless,
I'm soulless.

I feel like I've been forever alone,
Isolating myself, the old me is gone.
Hate for religion, hate for world leaders.
They're fucking soulless, mass murderers.

Soulless,
I'm soulless.
Soulless,
I'm soulless.

I'm soulless,
I'm soulless.

RESURRECTED [DEMO]

What's about to happen?
Everybody sees me dropping to my fucking knees.
Nobody comes to help me.
Everybody stares and points, but don't know what to do.
I'm fucking helpless.
Nobody knows, nobody knows, nobody knows,
about the monster inside of me.

I'm resurrecting, in someone new.
I'm resurrecting, in someone new.
I'm resurrecting, in someone new.
I'm resurrecting, in someone new.

Everybody sees me crawling on the street with a face of pain.
What's about to happen?
Everybody sees me spitting blood in the fucking gutter.
Why is no-one helping?
Everybody stares and points, but don't know what to do.
I'm fucking helpless.
Nobody knows, nobody knows, nobody knows,
about the monster inside of me.

I'm resurrecting, in someone new.
I've resurrected, in something new.
I've resurrected, in something new.

DEAD 'BUT NOT GONE' [DEMO]

A voice in my head oh so Wonderfull,
a force inside so horrible.
As pain in my chest increases,
I want to be cured, what's happening?
Soon it all will be over,
I'll disappear to a better place,
As darkness takes over,
off to a better place.

I'm dead, dead but not gone.
I'm dead, dead but not gone.

The voice in my head is taking over,
the force inside is getting stronger.
My ribs are breaking,
my chest splits open.
Now it's more intense,
I've been taken over.
Blood is gashing,
my bones are broken.
The beast inside is crawling out.
Life is flowing out of my body.
I've resurrected in something new.

I'm dead, dead but not gone.
I'm dead, dead but not gone.
I'm dead, dead but not gone.
I'm dead, dead but not gone.
