LOST

I lost everything that day,
now I feel nothing else but hate.
I've been lost since that day,
searching for something to remain.

THE SINNER

This is the way, to clear conscience.
This is the way, to stay on top.
This is the way, too trash up.
This is the way, to bring us down.
This is the way, to keep silence.
This is the way, to forgive you.
This is the way, to remember.
This is the way.

I needed space,
but you don't care.
Flashback childhood, fears I felt.
I will forgive, I won't forget.
Your social masks crumbling down.

This is the way, to clear conscience.
This is the way, to stay on top.
This is the way, too trash up.
This is the way, to bring us down.
This is the way, to keep silence.
This is the way, to forgive you.
This is the way, to remember.
This is the way.

I guess your answer's fading now,
you don't know what I'm talking about.
You can't ignore the fact, you created a sinner.

Family, alcohol.
Don't give a shit, you choose wrong.
Clean your act up, prove us wrong.
If you won't, you'll die alone.

This is the way, to clear conscience.
This is the way, to stay on top.
This is the way, too trash up.
This is the way, to bring us down.
This is the way, to keep silence.
This is the way, to forgive you.
This is the way, to remember.
This is the way.

Inner darkness, staying strong.
Battling this, I want it gone.
Taking down the ones I love,
because I see clear true sinners eyes.

This is the way, to clear conscience.
This is the way, to stay on top.
This is the way, too trash up.
This is the way, to bring us down.
This is the way, to keep silence.
This is the way, to forgive you.
This is the way, to remember.
This is the way.

SILENCE

This is the way they are turning against us, media's lying dividing us all up.
Raising alarm for no actual cost, causing more fear to win over our trust.

They are just lying, destructing denying.
Causing more chaos, for money and
power.
Wars and religion to divide us all up,
no room for silence, it's time to speak up.

Rapists and pedophiles dwell among us.
Unpunished hungry for more innocent blood.
People with power will help each other.
Cover up their mess, continue their hunt.

They are just lying, destructing denying.
Causing more chaos, for money and
power.
Wars and religion to divide us all up,
no room for silence, it's time to speak up.

Innocent blood gets spilled on daily bases.
Women and children get tortured and murdered.
Civilians die and they don't give a damn shit, filling their pockets is more important.

They are just lying, destructing denying.
Causing more chaos, for money and
power.
Wars and religion to divide us all up,
no room for silence, it's time to speak up.

We should become one, no more silence.
It's time to wake up and start a riot.
Riot against the higher forces,
destructors of earth and all humankind.

They are just lying, destructing denying.
Causing more chaos, for money and
power.
Wars and religion to divide us all up,
no room for silence, it's time to speak up.

WW3

They want us all to believe.
Believing in their fucking lies.
Creating chaos and disease.
Media, movies hypnotize.
Poisoned food, the air we breath.
Using religion to deceive.
The poor get poorer.
Owh what a beautiful world,
bless the corporate machine.

The year is 2022.
There is no more religion.
Everything has burned down.
Dominant insects have survived.
Skulls and bones cover the earth,
a once so happy family.
Burned up pictures and disease.
Owh what a beautiful world,
bless the corporate machine.

The world is covered in darkness.
Hypnotizing us with their hypes and lies.
But they don't know,
that many of us are waking up unraveling,
their lies, plans, disguises.
What the future holds is all up to us.
But will we be scared and obey,
or will we try to change everything.

Only a couple have survived.
Only to be hunted.
New forms of mutation.
Machines so smart they live.
Trying to save humanity,
only to find out.
This was just a big plan.
Owh what a beautiful world,
bless the corporate machine.

Food has run out.
Acid rains on daily base.
Our planet is now dying,
we are now mutating.
A death that they created,
made of flesh, blood and puss.
The last human just died.
Owh what a beautiful world,
bless the corporate machine.

The world is covered in darkness.
Hypnotizing us with their hypes and lies.
But they don't know,
that many of us are waking up unraveling,
their lies, plans, disguises.
What the future holds is all up to us.
But will we be scared and obey,
or will we try to change everything.

SOCIAL MASKS

You play with people's lives, propaganda on daily base.
We are stupid to believe, trusting everything they say.
Murdering, lying, spreading fear.
Rulers of this fucking world, murderers of society,
serial killers in a suit.

Everybody needs to see this as a mother fucking seashell,
hard too open but the truth is hidden inside.
A pearl that symbolizes the truth, the shell is just a mask of society.
They're all murdering us, raping our minds.
Why are we so blind to see, why not be a unity, try to make a fucking change, mess up our society, together conquer everything, WW3 is closing in.

You portray yourselves as good, but all you do is deceive.
You build on people's trust, using religion as relief.
Hiding profile mistakes, dividing us all people up.
The house of your fucking god, is a temple of deceive.

Everybody needs to see this as a mother fucking seashell,
hard too open but the truth is hidden inside.
A pearl that symbolizes the truth, the shell is just a mask of society.
They're all murdering us, raping our minds.
Why are we so blind to see, why not be a unity, try to make a fucking change, mess up our society, together conquer everything, WW3 is closing in.

A window to the world, a place for family and friends.
No longer go outside, don't want to miss this last update.
Info, pictures bank details, it all feels so fucking safe.
Likes and shares are like a drug, hypnotized fucking sheep.

Everybody needs to see this as a mother fucking seashell,
hard too open but the truth is hidden inside.
A pearl that symbolizes the truth, the shell is just a mask of society.
They're all murdering us, raping our minds.
Why are we so blind to see, why not be a unity, try to make a fucking change, mess up our society, together conquer everything, WW3 is closing in.

Spreading hate and fear, propaganda on daily base.
Using all brainless sheep, feed off the masses that believe.
Believe in everything they see, try to change society.
Everybody's hypnotized, because of the media.

Everybody needs to see this as a mother fucking seashell,
hard too open but the truth is hidden inside.
A pearl that symbolizes the truth, the shell is just a mask of society.
They're all murdering us, raping our minds.
Why are we so blind to see, why not be a unity, try to make a fucking change, mess up our society, together conquer everything, WW3 is closing in.

They are trying to kill us all, we're all blind to see.
Racism, fascism on daily base.
